Rome, September 20.

ON the 15th Inſtant a Contract of Marriage between the Conſtable Colonna and the Daughter of the late Duke Salviati, was ſigned in the Palace Salviati; her Dowry is 150000 Crowns. On the 18th they were married by Cardinal Fabroni. Certain Inhabitants of Montelibretto, and ſome Officers belonging to the Prince of Paleſtrina, were lately ſeized and brought hither, upon Complaint made by Count Gallas the Emperour's Ambaſſadour, that they held Intelligence with Scarpileggia the Chief of the Banditi; but upon Examination their Guilt not appearing, they were all diſmiſſed, except one who ſtill remains confined. Captain Griſoni is ſent to Villetri, in order to head a Number of Soldiers to Collalto, and act with them againſt the Banditi, who commit great Diſorders in the open Country, and in the Woods and Foreſts thereabouts. Sig. Molara, Commiſſary of Arms, is gone at the ſame time to acquaint the Duke of Gaetano, that the Pope out of Regard to him would not ſend Sbirri nor Soldiers on his Eſtate, but deſires him to aſſiſt Captain Griſoni againſt the Banditi, many of whom have retired into his Woods. 'Tis adviſed from Malta, that the Great Maſter of that Order being very much broken by his great Age and Infirmities, had appointed Don Raimond de Paz, a Majorcan, to be his Lieutenant.

Milan, Sept. 21. On Sunday laſt the Companies of the Regiment of Konigſeck, which were in Garriſon in our Caſtle, marched for Pavia, where they are to join the reſt of their Regiment, and proceed with that of Bareith and two other Battallions to Genoa, there to be imbarked for Naples. By Letters from Rome 'tis adviſed, that ſince the Publication the 8th Inſtant of the Brief of Separation, againſt thoſe Prelates in France who refuſe Obedience to the Bull Unigenitus, nothing further has been done by the Court of Rome in that Affair; but that they wait to ſee what Effects that Brief will have in France, and whether the Succeſs will be anſwerable to the Hopes with which the Pope has been flattered by his Adherents in that Kingdom.

Genoa, Oct. 4. Certain Officers are gone, by Order of this Government, to meet on the Frontiers 5600 Imperialiſts, and to conduct them to San Pietro d' Arena, where they are to imbark for Naples. A Man of War and ſeveral Tranſports are expected in three or four Days from Naples, to take on board thoſe Troops. General Wachtendonk, who is to command them, arrived this Afternoon from Milan, and ſays the ſaid Troops will be at San Pietro d' Arena by the 12th Inſtant. Two Days ago came into this Port two Britiſh Ships from Alicant, which in their Way touched at Port Mahon. Here is come in alſo, the Eagle, commanded by Captain Thomas King, in 14 Days from Meſſina.
